

Acknowledgements

We express our profound gratitude to persons and institutions who have given of their time and expertise to seeing this volume to its completion:

David and Elizabeth Friesen Foundation, Winnipeg
Multiculturalism Secretariat, Ottawa
The University of Winnipeg
Rudy Nikkel, Steinbach
D.F. Plett Historical Research Foundation
Angela Armstrong, Winnipeg
Andrea Dyck, Winnipeg
Print Studio One Staff, Steinbach

Note that the Journal of Mennonite Studies is abstracted by America History and Life (ABC-Clio), American Theological Library Associates (ATLA) and Historical Abstracts.

Cover: The cover depicts a painting, “Katja Goerz”, by Winnipeg artist Ray Dirks. It is one of 26 he created for the “Along the Road to Freedom” project, honouring mothers who brought their families to Canada from Russia and the Soviet Union, or simply suffered human rights abuses under its regime. These paintings, “sponsored” by the children of these women, have been on display at the Mennonite Heritage Centre Gallery, Winnipeg, and will tour Canada. Most represent women who emigrated from the Soviet Union as refugees in the 1920s and 1940s. Dirks was a member of the ‘Mennonites and Human Rights’ committee formed to engage the Canadian Museum of Human Rights in Winnipeg. Used by permission of Ray Dirks.