

A People of Diversity: Mennonites in Canada since 1970

Hosted by the Centre for Transnational Mennonite Studies

Mennonite Historical Society of Canada's 50th Anniversary Conference

A DVCM Conference

November 15-17, 2018

Eckhardt Gramatté & Convocation Halls,
University of Winnipeg

This conference marks the Mennonite Historical Society (MHSC) of Canada's 50th anniversary. It considers 'diversity' in new ethnic identities, new forms of crossing old boundaries, and new ways of thinking about faith, culture and socio-political issues.

Thursday, November 15 (7:00 pm – 9:30 pm)

Keynote Address by Dr. Marlene Epp:

"The Intersectional Mennonite in the Quest of an Inclusive Canadian Mennonite History"

Friday, November 16 (8:30 am – 9:00 pm)

Indigeneity, Mission and Colonialism

An Anabaptist Agriculture

Gender and Sexuality

Re-imagining Education

Ethnic and Racial Diversity

Saturday, November 17 (8:30 am – 5:00 pm)

Memory and a Re-imagined Past.

Contesting Middle Class Convention

Reinventing Ethnic Identities

Millennial Youth and Generation

Free Attendance | Register at Conference

For more information visit www.mennonitestudies.uwinnipeg.ca/events